RE: Unpaid Back Wages and Overtime Lawsuit Against American Family Insurance

DEADLINE TO FILE CONSENT FORM: _______, 2023.²

1. Why Are You Getting This Notice?

You received this Notice because the Court in charge of this lawsuit has ordered this Notice be sent to persons who are identified by American Family Mutual Insurance Company, S.I.'s ("American Family" or "Defendant") records as a current or former Physical Damage Adjusters (together, "Plaintiffs") who worked for American Family at any time during the last three years.

The Court has allowed or "certified" a collective action lawsuit that may affect you. This notice is intended to advise you of how your rights under the Fair Labor Standards Act ("FLSA") may be affected by this lawsuit and describe how to participate in this lawsuit.

¹ This date will be three (3) years before the date the Court approves of Plaintiff's Notice.

² This date will be 60 days after the Notice is mailed.

2. What Is This Lawsuit About?

Robert L. Drummond and Jan A. Carlson filed this lawsuit on behalf of themselves and all other Physical Damage Adjusters ("Plaintiffs") who worked for American Family alleging that American Family misclassified its Physical Damage Adjusters as being exempt from overtime requirements in violation of federal law.

In addition to unpaid overtime, Plaintiffs are seeking liquidated (double) damages equal to the unpaid overtime, as well as attorneys' fees and costs.

American Family denies Plaintiff's allegations. American Family contends that Plaintiffs and Physical Damage Adjusters have been, and continue to be, properly paid under the FLSA.

The Court has not decided who is right but has authorized this notice to inform you of your right to join this lawsuit.

3. Are You Eligible to Join This Lawsuit?

You are eligible to join this lawsuit if:

- 1. You were employed by American Family as a Physical Damage Adjuster, anywhere in the United States, at any time in the past three years to the present; and,
- 2. You were paid a salary and no overtime.

4. What Are Your Options?

If you meet the criteria for this lawsuit, you have a choice to assert your legal rights in this case if you desire to do so. However, you are not required to do so and may choose to take no action without consequence to you.

5. Effect of Joining or Not Joining the Lawsuit.

If you submit a Consent to Join Wage Claim form, you will be part of the case and bound to any future judgment. Therefore, if the Plaintiffs who filed this case win at trial or settle the case, you may receive additional money from American Family as part of the award won at trial or the settlement reached between the Parties. If the Plaintiffs who filed this case lose the case, you will receive nothing and will be bound by the decision, but you will not have to pay anything either.

If you decide to join the lawsuit, you may be required to answer written questions, appear for a deposition and/or testify at trial with regard to your claims against American Family.

³ This date will be 60 days after the Notice is mailed.

If you do not wish to be a part of the lawsuit, you do not need to do anything. The decision to join is entirely yours.

6. American Family Cannot and Will Not Fire You for Joining This Lawsuit.

Many employees fear being terminated for making a wage claim. However, federal law prohibits American Family from firing or in any other manner discriminating against you because you join this case. This means American Family, or any other employer, is prohibited from firing you, demoting you, or cutting your pay because you participated in this case.

7. Your Legal Representation If You Join.

If you choose to join this suit you may choose to hire your own attorney, or you may agree to be represented by Plaintiff's attorneys.

Plaintiffs' attorneys are advancing the expenses of the litigation. They are representing the Plaintiffs on a contingency fee basis. No current or former Physical Damage Adjusters who opts in to the lawsuit will owe any attorneys' fees unless the Plaintiffs successfully recover damages.

Plaintiffs and their attorneys have agreed to a total attorneys' fee of forty percent (40%) of the unpaid overtime pay that Physical Damage Adjusters are entitled to as a result of the lawsuit. This percentage will be reduced by any award of attorneys' fees received from the Court.

In no event will any Physical Damage Adjusters who joins this case owe any attorney's fees or costs if no back wages or overtime is received.

If you complete and submit the enclosed Consent Form, you will be represented by the law firms of ANDERSON ALEXANDER, PLLC and HAWKS QUINDEL, S.C. Their contact information is listed below.

8. You Have Sixty (60) Days to Join this Lawsuit.

Your determination of whether or not to take action should be made promptly. Because the law only allows a person to recover up to three (3) years of back wages from the date the Consent to Join Wage Claim form is filed, time is of the essence in submitting this form if you wish to have the opportunity to make a full recovery.
